

WORLDWIDE PENTECOSTAL FELLOWSHIP

VOLUNTEER RELEASE,
CONSENT TO MEDICAL TREATMENT, AND AGREEMENT REGARDING VOLUNTEER STATUS

This Release and Consent is entered into on this _____ day of _____, 20__, by _____ (“Volunteer”), an individual providing volunteer services to Worldwide Pentecostal Fellowship, Inc., doing business as the WPF Hope Corps.

1. Volunteer warrants and agrees that he/she understands the terms of this Release and Consent and has executed this document by his/her own free will.

2. Volunteer acknowledges that Volunteer provides or will provide volunteer services for Worldwide Pentecostal Fellowship, Inc. and participates or will participate in activities and events conducted by Worldwide Pentecostal Fellowship, Inc., its directors, officers, employees, and agents (hereinafter collectively referred to as “WPF”). Volunteer acknowledges that as a volunteer, Volunteer’s actions reflect upon WPF. Therefore, Volunteer agrees that he/she will behave in an appropriate manner and will exercise reasonable care in performing his/her volunteer services in order to avoid damaging the reputation of or risking the assessment of liability against the WPF.

3. Volunteer warrants, agrees, and understands (a) that he/she is a volunteer of WPF; (b) that as a volunteer, he/she is not entitled to any payment, compensation, or remuneration for the services which he/she renders to WPF or on WPF’s behalf during Volunteer’s tenure as a volunteer; (c) that he/she will not perform any services for WPF for which he/she expects or desires to receive compensation of any kind during his/her tenure as a Volunteer; (d) that he/she is not an employee of WPF, nor an independent contractor of WPF; (e) that during Volunteer’s tenure as a volunteer, he/she is not under consideration by WPF for any position of employment or for independent contractor status. Volunteer specifically disclaims any claim to any compensation of any kind from WPF as a volunteer.

4. Volunteer warrants and agrees that (a) upon his/her decision to resign as a volunteer, he/she will notify WPF in writing, and (b) all of Volunteer’s services to WPF or on WPF’s behalf will be considered volunteer services until WPF’s receipt of the notice referred to under (a).

5. Volunteer releases and agrees to hold the WPF harmless from all liability resulting directly or indirectly from Volunteer's services as a volunteer and/or participation in WPF mission activities (collectively the "Volunteer Services"), including but not limited to liability for harm to Volunteer or his/her personal property resulting from the WPF's negligence or from illness, disease, civil unrest, war, terrorism or transportation accident or failure. Volunteer acknowledges that he/she has investigated the Volunteer Services and understands that travel to these locations may presents risks to Volunteer's physical safety and that the U.S. Department of State may or may not have issued a warning against travel to the places involved in the Volunteer Services. Volunteer, individually and on behalf of his/her heirs, personally assumes all risks and liabilities in connection with the Volunteer Services and agrees to indemnify the Ministry against any liability which might be assessed against it as a direct or indirect result of Participant's participation in the Missions Trip.

6. In the event that Volunteer is injured while providing or participating in Volunteer Service(s) during any WPF activity or event and is unable to consent to treatment, Volunteer hereby authorizes dental, medical, or surgical treatment, including but not limited to the administration of X-rays, anesthetic, and/or anesthesia, by any medical professional chosen by the WPF. Volunteer understands and agrees that this consent is given to encourage WPF and the licensed medical professional to exercise their best judgment as to such diagnosis or medical, dental, or surgical treatment. Volunteer personally assumes the duty of payment of any medical professional, hospital, clinic, or ambulance service and releases WPF from any such duty of payment.

7. Volunteer understands and agrees that this Release and Consent shall remain in effect until Volunteer's written revocation and that Volunteer's consent to treatment shall remain in effect until revoked orally or in writing to WPF or to the licensed medical professional treating Volunteer.

8. Volunteer consents to the WPF photographing and/or recording the Volunteer Services and agrees that any photographs or recordings of Volunteer taken by the WPF at the Volunteer Services are the exclusive property of the WPF for use by the WPF as it sees fit. Volunteer shall not be entitled to any compensation for such use.
